2024 Annual Report

The Future Starts Here

Greetings from our Key Leaders

Dear Friends,

We are pleased to share with you our 2024 Annual Report highlighting the amazing accomplishments of our Scouts, Explorers, and volunteers. Your involvement helped drive these achievements and we are truly grateful for your support.

In February 2025, our national organization rebranded itself as Scouting America – reflecting our diverse membership and our dedication to serving all youth who want to participate – making us Scouting America, Greater New York Councils.

Our commitment to helping New York City young people thrive and become their best selves remains our core focus. You will see in the pages ahead children and youth who overcame adversity and challenged themselves to do more than they ever thought possible.

Thank you for partnering with us to create better futures for New York City's young people and our communities. The future starts here and it starts with you!

With gratitude and appreciation,

In 2024, we developed 30 new Scouting and Exploring programs, and welcomed over 3,000 new Scouts and Explorers! New York City youth can join Cub Scouts, Scoutreach, Scouts BSA, Sea Scouts, Venturing, and Exploring. To deliver our programs we engaged and trained 3,320 adult volunteers who serve as positive role models and mentors.

I. Scoutreach

For over 35 years, the Scoutreach afterschool program has been a beacon of hope and opportunity in New York City's underserved communities. It was developed in response to the visible and expressed need in our underserved neighborhoods to provide a safe and enriching environment for our Scouts.

Through Scoutreach, the Greater New York Councils uses paid program leaders to provide children in Title I schools with a structured afterschool Cub Scout program fostering social and emotional learning, leadership, civic engagement, self-confidence, and wellness.

2024 Scoutreach Highlights:

1,441

We launched four new school-based Cub Scout Packs in our Scoutreach afterschool program, and a new Pack at an asylum-seeking family homeless shelter in Manhattan. In all, Scoutreach grew by 7% over 2023. Participating in Scoutreach helps young people expand their horizons and their aspirations and teaches them invaluable life skills.

Let's hear from Lindsay, a Cub Scout in Queens:

"I have learned so much and done so many fun activities since I've joined Cub Scouts. I've learned a lot of important life skills like being a respectful citizen and how to help others every day. ... We do exciting STEM projects; we build robots and battle ships and even make gooey slime! I love that I get a chance to have fun and spend more quality time with my friends and classmates.

I also love going camping! I had a chance to go to our camp at Cub World in Alpine, New Jersey. I had the greatest time ever! There are so many trees, animals and lots of different activities at camp that I would have never gotten to do here in the city."

II. Volunteer-Led Scouting

Packs, Troops, Crews, and Ships led by volunteers follow the Scouting America advancement curriculum featuring character education, outdoor adventure, and leadership skills. We do this by partnering with schools and faith- and community-based organizations throughout the city who host programs with us in every neighborhood in New York City. Scouting teaches life skills such as teamwork and leadership, as well as a wide variety of other important and engaging subjects that prepare young people for success in life. Career exploration, cyber safety, first aid, swimming, disaster preparedness, cooking, and financial literacy are just some of the skills that Scouts can learn in volunteer-led Scouting.

Volunteer-led Scouting Programs and Activities

Cub Scouts: Cub Scouts serve children in kindergarten through fifth grade. The Cub Scouts motto is “Do Your Best.” Children meet weekly for activities with other Cub Scouts and family members. The meetings emphasize learning and being part of a team while having fun. We served 2,401 Cub Scouts in 2024.

Scouts BSA: Older youth ages 11-18 engage in weekly meetings and participate in frequent camping trips and other outdoor adventure activities integrated with a comprehensive merit badge advancement program that includes more than 120 merit badges that offer unparalleled development opportunities for older youth. Scout leaders emphasize developing self-confidence, project management, service, and leadership skills. We served 2,442 Scouts BSA members in 2024.

Sea Scouts and Venturing: Young adults ages 14-20 can also participate in Sea Scouts and Venturing programs. Sea Scouting teaches boating skills through instruction and practice in water safety, outdoor experiences, and knowledge of our maritime heritage. Venturing teaches life skills such as leadership, organization, communication, and responsibility. In 2024, we served 45 Venturers and Sea Scouts.

Scouting offers many opportunities to teach young people how to make positive contributions to society and play leadership roles in their community.

Joaquin Sullivan, a Life Scout from Astoria, shares his story:

"I am extremely proud of being a Scout in New York City. The scout program allows youth of different backgrounds, cultures and religions to come together, learn new things, earn merit badges and provides an opportunity to become tomorrow's leaders. Scouting has changed my life in many profound ways.

Community service is a big part of the Scouting program. I have participated in community service projects such as park cleanups at Astoria Park and Flushing Meadows Park. My Troop has also helped to collect and distribute much needed food items at The Little Free Pantry at Grey's Lutheran Church, and Evangel Food Pantry in Astoria. Scouting has been a great way for me as well as for other Scouts to provide meaningful contributions to the community and a means to give back in different ways. Since March, I have been volunteering at the Hour Children Community Pantry where I will be working on my Eagle Project.

The 2023 National Jamboree was my most memorable Scouting experience. We participated in a community service project making flood buckets for low lying areas in West Virginia. It was great to work together with Scouts from across the country to help the people of that area. I also got to participate in the National Youth Leader Training program which was a fun and very informative leadership program. It was great to learn about how leadership drives not just us as individuals but how it drives our troops forward."

Teamwork at the Law Enforcement Exploring Summer Academy

III. Exploring

With the goal of helping young people succeed in college and career, Exploring serves New York City high school students, by offering a worksite-based career exploration program that provides each student with a professional mentor. There are two types of Exploring programs – Law Enforcement and Career-based.

Law Enforcement Exploring: We offer Law Enforcement Posts at every NYPD precinct and with the FBI, Diplomatic Security Service, and Customs and Border Protection among many other federal and state partners. In 2024 we engaged 1,853 Law Enforcement Explorers.

2024 Exploring Highlights:

2,514

active participants ages 14-20 served in 159 Law Enforcement and Fire/Emergency, and 14 Business programs as of 12.31.24

Exploring Programs and Activities

- Winter Law Enforcement Competition
- Spring Law Enforcement Competition
- Summer Law Enforcement Academy at Villa Maria Academy and Camp Keowa at Ten Mile River Scout Reservation
- Business Mock Trial Competition
- Recognition Dinner
- Service Projects
- College Campus Tours

In addition to weekly hands-on sessions, we offer a summer Law Enforcement Exploring Academy, comprised of two weeks in New York City for classroom instruction and drills, and one week of outdoor adventure and training at Camp Keowa in Narrowsburg, NY. In July 2024 the Exploring summer Academy was held for two weeks at Fordham University followed by a week at Camp Keowa in upstate New York. Camaraderie is an important element of the Academy. As one Explorer put it last summer, “my company felt more like family every passing day.”

LAW & CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Being an Explorer offers a clear window into a career in law enforcement, but it also offers the chance to hone leadership skills that can be valuable in any professional situation and a chance to contribute greatly to one's community.

Here Sofia describes the impact of being part of the Exploring program:

"My name is Yabdielys Sofia Silva. I am an Explorer with FBI Post 2060 here in New York City. I have just completed my first year of study at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

I did not grow up dreaming of becoming an FBI Agent. As a young Latina in the Bronx, I dreamed of being a singer, or an actor, the normal types of careers every young person dreams of. The Explorer program has given me a path forward and upon graduation from John Jay, where I am focusing on Social Work, I will be applying to the FBI Academy to one day work as an agent in the FBI Victims Assistance program.

Serving the community is one of the hallmarks of the Explorer program. Our Post was able to achieve more than 2,700 hours of community service since last September. My fellow Explorers and I have participated in the St. Francis Breadline to distribute meals to the homeless, volunteered to work with the Mayor's Community Foundation's Operation Santa Claus benefitting special needs children, and volunteered to work the Tunnel to Towers road race as our Post is named in remembrance of Leonard Hatton, Jr., an FBI agent here in New York City who lost his life saving others on 9/11. Community service is incredibly important to me, and a stark reminder that no matter how bad things may get in my own life, there is always someone less fortunate that I can lend a helping hand and a warm smile.

I presently serve as Assistant Explorer In Charge of my unit, and I will keep pushing to gain more leadership opportunities. Who knows, maybe one day I could be Yabdielys Sofia Silva, FBI Director."

IV. Camping

Children in New York City have few opportunities to stay active and experience nature. At a time when many kids are spending more time on computers and other electronic devices, Scouting encourages youth to get outside and play together. The disruptions and lingering challenges of the pandemic make outdoor adventure and the chance to just be a kid even more meaningful. The Greater New York Councils owns and operates three nationally recognized camp facilities:

Alpine Scout Camp, located in New Jersey on 400 acres just 10 minutes from the George Washington Bridge, hosts the John E. Reeves Cub World, which offers weeklong camping experiences for children ages 6-10. Cub World offers indoor and outdoor climbing facilities, a large swimming pool, a baseball field, a game room, and technology center.

Ten Mile River Scout Reservation

2024 Camping Highlights:

TMR offers multiple resident summer camps and plays host to weekend trips the rest of the year.

Pouch Scout Camp is centrally located in Staten Island on 120 acres and is used for day trips and weekend outings year-round with archery, a fully stocked lake, hiking trails, picnic groves, a playground, and sports fields.

A high percentage of leaders see improvement in Scouts' life skills as a result of attending summer camp, including:
